FAMILY MEETINGS:

It is suggested that a family sit down for one hour each week to discuss the progress made toward their financial goals. Outline rules for the meeting; i.e., each person have a chance to speak, speak calmly, avoid the use of the word "you" (use "I" instead), and thank each person for their participation.

QUESTIONS to ask when looking at each area where you spend your money: Is this the safest way ?

a wise use of $?

a wise use of time ?

the least expensive way to do this ?

the only way, is there a back-up plan ?

what I want to teach my children / parents ?

are we getting closer to our goals?
